

University of St Andrews Students Association
Aims and Activities Declaration example

Aims and Activities Declaration

Society Name: Green Appreciation Society

Society Email: greensoc@st-andrews.ac.uk

President Name: Sam Gorman

President Email: seg22@st-andrews.ac.uk

AIMS OF YOUR SOCIETY:

List the aims of your society as they appear in your constitution

- Provide a social space for members
- To educate students and members of the public about why green is the best colour through outreach and other methods as deemed appropriate
- To host and fund an annual poetry competition based on the theme: “green”

Event/Activity name	Description of event/activity (and event venue)	Expected number of attendees	Expected event date(s)/frequency
Flyering for green appreciation	Members of the Society will stand on market street and hand out flyers advertising the society and explaining why green is the best colour.	~10 society members participating ~100 members of the public interacted with	Once every two weeks during term time during both semesters
Green Festival	Full day Conference where academics will be invited to explain why green is the best colour as well as attendee participation. The day time events	Panel event: 40 attendees Slam poetry: 50 attendees Ceilidh: 60 attendees	We don't have a date confirmed yet but we're planning to host it week 2 or 3 of semester 2.

University of St Andrews Students Association
Aims and Activities Declaration example

	are free to attend but the Ceilidh is ticketed. <ul style="list-style-type: none">• 9am-11am: Panel event where academics will debate which colour is the best• 11am-noon: Lunch prepared by University catering.• Noon-3pm: Audience participation Slam poetry competition on why Green is the best colour• 5-7pm: Ceilidh. We have booked [band name] who will be calling the dances All the events will take place in Younger Hall		